Notice to all Applicants:

Reasonable Accommodations for Applicants with Disabilities

Greater Dayton Premier Management (GDPM) is a public agency that provides low rent housing to eligible families, elderly families and single people. GDPM is not permitted to discriminate against applicants on the basis of their race, religion, sex, color, age, disability or familial status. In addition, GDPM has a legal obligation to provide “reasonable accommodations” to applicants if they or any family members have a disability. A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change GDPM can make to its apartments or procedures that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant with a disability to take advantage of GDPM’s programs. Examples of reasonable accommodations would include:

- Adding or altering unit features so they may be used by a family member with a disability;
- Installing strobe type flashing light smoke detectors in an apartment for a family with a hearing impaired member;
- Permitting a family to have a large dog to assist a family member with a disability in a GDPM family development where the size of dogs is usually limited;
- Making large type documents, Braille documents, cassettes or a reader available to an applicant with a vision impairment during the application process;
- Making a sign language interpreter available to an applicant with a hearing impairment during the interview or meetings with GDPM staff;
- Permitting an outside agency or individual to assist an applicant with a disability to meet the GDPM's applicant screening criteria.

An applicant family that has a member with a disability must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy. They must be able to pay rent, to care for their apartment, to report required information the GDPM, to avoid disturbing their neighbors, etc., but there is no requirement that they be able to do these things without assistance.

If you or a member of your family have a disability and think you might need or want a reasonable accommodation, you may request it at any time in the application process or at any time you need an accommodation. This is up to you. If you would prefer not to discuss your situation with GDPM, that is your right.

It is the policy of Greater Dayton Premier Management (GDPM) to ensure that communications with applicants, residents, program participants, and members of the public with disabilities are as effective as communications with others. If you need assistance in this area, please request a copy of GDPM’s Effective Communication Policy that describes the auxiliary aids and services that GDPM can provide.
