What Is RAD?

The Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) is a program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) that seeks to preserve affordable housing.

Public housing units across the country need more than $26 billion in repairs and many public housing agencies (PHAs) do not have enough money to keep units in good condition. RAD provides PHAs a way to repair units without depending on additional money from the government.

RAD allows PHAs to convert a public housing property’s HUD funding to either:

- Section 8 project-based voucher (PBV); or
- Section 8 project-based rental assistance (PBRA).

This conversion of funding type lets PHAs borrow money to make needed repairs.

What Is Resident Participation?

HUD recognizes the importance of resident involvement in improving the quality of life for residents. Resident organizations and councils should work to improve resident satisfaction and participate in initiatives that enable residents to create a positive living environment for all families.

In the public housing program, residents are able to organize and form a resident council to represent their interests to the PHA. Resident councils are encouraged to meet regularly with your PHA to discuss issues, plan activities, and review progress.

To establish and operate a resident council, your PHA must allow you to:

- Contact other residents;
- Conduct surveys of residents to determine interest in establishing an organization or to offer information about an organization;
- Distribute leaflets in the lobby and common areas and place leaflets at or under residents’ doors;
- Post information on bulletin boards;
- Hold regularly scheduled meetings in a location where residents can easily attend; and
- Conduct other reasonable activities.

FACT SHEETS FOR PUBLIC HOUSING RESIDENTS

This series of fact sheets will help public housing residents learn about RAD. All fact sheets are posted on RAD’s website at www.hud.gov/rad, under the ‘Residents’ tab. This fact sheet explains RAD’s resident participation and funding rules.
Your resident organization may coordinate a response on behalf of residents to proposed PHA actions such as:
- Changing from PHA-paid utilities to resident-paid utilities;
- Reducing resident utility allowances;
- Rent increases; or
- Major construction or modernization work at your property.

Under public housing, your PHA had to recognize legitimate resident councils, provide funding to support these organizations, and give reasonable consideration to the concerns raised by these organizations.

WILL I HAVE A RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AFTER A RAD CONVERSION?

If your property participates in RAD, you will have the right to establish and operate a resident organization. The property owners must continue to recognize legitimate resident organizations, provide funding to support these organizations, and give reasonable consideration to the concerns raised by these organizations.

What makes a resident organization “legitimate”?

To be considered “legitimate,” your resident organization must:
- Be established by the residents of the property;
- Meet regularly;
- Operate democratically;
- Represent all residents at the property; and
- Be independent from the property owner.

If there is no legitimate resident organization at your property, HUD encourages your property owner to actively engage residents and develop a constructive working relationship.

WILL MY RESIDENT ORGANIZATION STILL RECEIVE RESIDENT PARTICIPATION FUNDING?

After a RAD conversion, your property owner must continue to provide resident participation funding in the amount of $25 per occupied unit per year.

Your resident organization must receive at least $15 of this amount to fund resident participation activities such as resident education, organizing around tenancy issues, and training activities. The owner may keep $10 of this amount to pay for any costs to administer resident participation activities.

If your resident council had unused resident participation funds before participating in RAD, that money will still be available for your resident organization’s use after the conversion.
